OLD BUSINESS AND TABLED MATTERS:
SECOND READING (ORDINANCES)

18-177  Mayor and Council
WHEREAS, the City of Augusta wishes to encourage the local production and sale of food and food products; and

WHEREAS, regulation of the local production and sale of food and food products can be unduly burdensome to producers; and

WHEREAS, the Maine Legislature has provided municipalities with home rule authority to exempt direct producer-to-consumer transactions of food and food products from regulation;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED, by the City Council of the City of Augusta, that the following Food Sovereignty Ordinance is hereby enacted:

1. Authority and Purpose: This Ordinance is intended to provide Augusta residents unimpeded access to local food and to reduce governmental regulation of local foods to the extent permitted by home rule authority under 30-A M.R.S.A. § 3001, the Constitution of Maine, Article VIII, Part Second, and pursuant to 7 M.R.S. § 281 et seq.

2. Definitions: As used in this ordinance, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the meanings stated below:
A. Direct Producer-to-Consumer Transaction: A face-to-face transaction involving food or food products at the site of production of those food or food products.

B. Food or Food Products: Any food or food product intended for human consumption, including, but not limited to, milk or milk products, meat or meat products, poultry or poultry products, fish or fish products, seafood or seafood products, cider or juice, acidified foods or canned fruits or vegetables.

C. State and City Food Law: Any provision of Title 7 or Title 22 of the Maine Revised Statutes, or rules adopted under Title 7 or Title 22 of the Maine Revised Statutes, or provision of the City of Augusta Code that regulates direct producer-to-consumer transactions.

3. Exemption from Licensure and Inspection: Producers and processors of local food intended for direct producer-to-consumer transactions in the City of Augusta shall be exempt from state and City licensure and inspection under State and City Food Laws. In accordance with Section 284 of the Maine Food Sovereignty Act, the State of Maine and the City of Augusta shall not enforce State and City Food Laws with respect to direct producer-to-consumer transactions.

4. Exception for Meat and Poultry Inspections: In accordance with Section 285 of the Maine Food Sovereignty Act, the exemption provided in Section 3 of this Ordinance does not apply to any meat or poultry product inspection and licensing requirements that are specified under applicable federal acts.

18-178 City Manager
BE IT ORDAINED, by the City Council of the City of Augusta, as follows:

That Article III, section 270-35 Stopping, Standing and Parking. Of the Revised Code of Ordinances 1990, as amended, be further amended by adding and deleting the following language:

Jefferson Street

No parking on the south side from Oxford Street Northern Avenue to Washington Street.

No parking on the southerly side between Oxford Street and Northern Avenue between November 1 and April 1.

Parking shall be restricted to 15 minutes on the west side for the legal property boundary of the property located at 133 Northern Avenue as it borders on Jefferson Street (Dube's Market), a distance of 66 feet.

18-179 Mayor and Council
WHEREAS, the Planning Board held a public hearing on the issue of a rezoning and voted unanimously to recommend the rezoning be approved; and

WHEREAS, the lot in question became split zoned via a land transaction enabling the widening of Stone Street in front of this lot during the construction of the Hannaford Supermarket about 10 years ago; and

WHEREAS, the City Council and Planning Board recognize that this lot split by a zoning boundary creates an unusual problem for this owner, where regulation differs significantly across the lot.
NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED, that the City Council of the City of Augusta rezones Tax Map 38, Lot 120A (25 Stone Street) such that the entire lot is within the Institutional/Business/Professional (BP) zoning district, eliminating the Contract Zone on this lot.
