

Many local charitable organizations take items you want to recycle or donate for reuse.

Below are just a few examples. Many other organizations are also looking for other items, be sure to check with your favorite one to see what they may need.

Gently Used Clothes:

Goodwill Industries (623-1774) or www.ginne.org

Salvation Army (623-8924) or www.salvationarmy.org

Gently Used Bedding (Sheets, blankets and comforters):

Family Violence Project (623-8637) or www.familyviolenceproject.org

Gently Used Blankets, towels and comforters

Kennebec Valley Humane Society (623-3491) or www.pethavenlane.org

Current editions of magazines and books

Various senior center organizations and churches

Coffee cans, baby food jars, empty paper towel and toilet paper rolls, small plastic containers (margarine tubs), egg cartons, oatmeal containers and yarn.

City of Augusta Child Care Bureau (626-2350) or www.augustamaine.gov

Please remember all items must be clean.

Recycling or reusing items helps reduce waste going to the landfill and provides usable items for these organizations inexpensively.
