September 5, 1864

Alderman Currier presented the report of the same Committee to whom was referred the petition of Thos. Fuller and others to have the travelled part of Mt. Vernon Avenue widened, with the following accompanying order viz:

ORDERED, That the Street Commissioner for the Western District be and hereby is directed to widen the traveled part of Mt. Vernon Avenue ten feet as follows; ten feet on the north side on Water Street and diminishing to a point on State Street, and ten feet on the south side of State Street, and diminishing to a point on Water Street.

Were severally read, the report was accepted and the order was passed. Sent down for concurrence.
