READ AND ACCEPTED

In Board of Alderman

April 15, 1897

To the City Council of Augusta:

We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of Augusta, respectfully represent that a road or highway has been built beginning at the north side of Cedar Street running northerly to land of Ruel J. Noyes as set forth on a plan of the Brook's field corner of Hospital Street and Cedar Street, said plan being made by R. B. Capen, in 1891, and recorded in Kennebec Registry of Deeds, Book Plan, number 1, page 15.

We, the undersigned petitioners earnestly desire that said road be accepted by said City and kept in proper repair and that it be named Cedar Street Court.
